

WHITE'S RE-OPENS

The Parish Council is delighted to note that the White Horse Public House is re-opening shortly as a gastro pub, under the ownership and management of local man, Craig Gillett.

The pub will include a refurbished bar and restaurant and the head chef is Kevin Boyd.

It is hoped that this will employ 25-30 local people, either full time or part time, and will make a great contribution to our local economy and community.

For more information go to www.whitehorsesteyning.co.uk where Mr Gillett hopes to put up more information about the imminent re-opening, bar and restaurant style, and a menu.

We wish him every success.
