

Community Youth Work

Sessional Youth Worker Required – Cuthman Youth Centre, Steyning

My Name is Emma Edwards and I am the Community Youth Worker for Steyning, Ashurst, Upper Beeding and Bramber. This post is provided by the charity Horsham Matters and funded by Steyning Area Youth Services (SAYS).

I am currently looking for a Sessional Youth Worker to assist with leading two open access Youth Club sessions. The first of which is a double session for 11-13yrs and then 14-18yrs on Tuesday nights from 5pm-9pm. The second opportunity is for ages 11-19yrs from 7pm-9pm on Thursday nights. This person will work with volunteers from within the local community and lead on the club activities.

Salary is £11.50/hr and will be no more than 8 hours per week, on a three-month contract.

Could this be you?

For more information and to talk about this exciting new opportunity please contact me via email on emmaedwards@horsham-matters.org.uk call me on 07702492828