

STEYNING COMMUNITY FILM NIGHT

The Railway Man

Showing at the Steyning Centre on Wednesday 5th November at 7.30pm.

Doors Open 7.00pm

Ticket Price (including tea or coffee in the interval) £6.00

Based on his best-selling memoir, the movie tells the extraordinary and epic true story of Eric Lomax (Colin Firth) a British Army officer who is tortured as a prisoner of war at a Japanese labour camp during World War II. Decades later, Lomax discovers that the Japanese interpreter he holds responsible for much of his treatment is still alive and sets out to confront him, and his haunting past.