

From the people of Steyning, West Sussex

Birthdays are great,
I know this is true.
I hear you've turned ninety
A very special QE2.

In Steyning we are celebrating
To mark this special day
With baking cakes and singing songs
While sitting on the hay.

My daddy is a police officer
And he looks after you.
He says you are very special
Like my Great-Nan too.

So today if I get lucky
And no one is watching me,
I might just hide inside a box
And surprise you with some tea.
(Special delivery of course!)
