

Timescale for compiling new Allotment agreement and consideration of possible Allotment Fee increases

Briefing Note

This item on the agenda is to allow committee to understand what is required and by when and to look at the timeframe for which these discussions need to be carried out.

It may well be that a working party take on board the initial phase of this undertaking so that a draft working document is brought back to Committee for comment and further suggested actions.