Statement from the SPC Chair on the passing of Queen Elizabeth II

Dates 9th September 2022

This solemn day is one of profound sadness, as news of the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II goes out across the world. It is a milestone in our history, and it marks the gentle and dignified close of the longest reign of any monarch this country has ever known.

Steyning Parish Council joins the nation in mourning the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

The flag at the Steyning Centre, St Andrew's Church and on public buildings around the country have been lowered to half-mast.

A Book of condolence has been opened at the Steyning Centre {9am to 5pm} and is also available some evenings when the Centre is in use.

There is also an online book of condolence on the Buckingham Palace's website: www.royal.uk

Chairman of the Council

Joanna Norcross
