ASB crime

We received a report from a Steyning resident who was concerned about reckless cycling by local paperboys who were not wearing cycle helmets or high vis protective clothing. We carried out a visit to raise his concerns.

We received a report of numerous bottles of beer and alcohol smashed onto the footpath under the A283 flyover. We have carried out foot patrols of the area.

We intervened with a group of young males drinking alcohol behind Steyning Leisure Centre. We issued warnings and confiscated alcohol from the group.

We received a report from an elderly resident in Steyning who had eggs thrown at her windows. Reassurance phone call made. Increased foot patrols of the area and house visit programmed.

Parking/vehicles

Car obstructing other road users on Henfield Rd. Yellow warning/advice card issued.

Fly tipping/littering/graffiti

Domestic rubbish Steyning Bostal. Reported to Environmental Health. H.D.C.

Domestic rubbish found in a layby and report to HDC cleansing team.

Community engagement/events/meetings

We held a joint Horsham District PCSO/Warden meeting at the Steyning Community Centre. This was a great opportunity to share information and talk about local issues.

We held a Wardens drop in at The Hub in Upper Beeding.

We also attended a local community working group re ASB in the bus shelter in Steyning High Street.

We carried out numerous engagements with groups of youths during half term on the Memorial Playing Field, Upper Beeding recreation ground, Small Dole Skate Park and other locations favoured by young people.

Patrols (foot/visible and car)

New foot patrols along the Adur River footpath near A283 Flyover.

We continue to carry out foot patrols of the Steyning COOP to deter alleged shoplifting by young people after close of school day.

Older, vulnerable people and youth

We continue to hold Warden drop ins at The Hub in Upper Beeding.

Dog related issues

We engaged with the owner of an alsatian causing concerns with some residents in Upper Beeding. The dog is now muzzled by its owner and is attending dog socialisation sessions in Ashington.
