

Having trouble viewing this email? View it as a Web page.

Latest news

and information

District and Parish election results

A Horsham District Council election took place on Thursday 4 May 2023.

Horsham District residents have elected:

- 28 Liberal Democrat councillors
- 11 Conservative councillors
- 8 Green party councillors
- 1 Independent councillor

The Council now has a Liberal Democrat majority.

Click the button below to view the full results and turnout figures on our website.

View the results

Celebrating the King's Coronation

Thousands of people across the Horsham District came out to celebrate the Coronation of His Majesty The King over an extended weekend of free special events.

Throughout the Horsham District, street parties, Big Lunches, fetes, vintage car rallies and a whole lot more brought our local communities together over the special Coronation Bank Holiday weekend, as we marked this significant day in our nation's history.

Read more

Walks with Wardens keep Billingshurst locals healthy and safe

Billingshurst residents were joined on a recent Wellbeing Walk (arranged by Horsham District Wellbeing Service) by Billingshurst Neighbourhood Wardens and West Sussex Fire & Rescue Service.

During their stroll through Jubilee Fields country park, participants were able to see spring flourishing, discuss any local issues and talk all things fire safety.

Read more

Winning market traders head to London competition final

The local heat of the 2023 UK Young Market Trader of the Year competition saw Benedict Derbyshire from Viburna Spirits, a locally based artisan liqueur company, beat off tough competition to win first place.

Highly commended companies were Jade's Sweetbakes, Plastic-free refills, Resident Pheasant and CWJ London.

Read more

More news from Horsham District Council
