

news release

25 September 2024

Could you be a Councillor?

Are you passionate about local issues and want to make a difference in your local community?

Would you like to be involved in decision-making and representing the views of local people?

West Sussex County Council will be holding elections on 1 May 2025 and is inviting people to find out more about becoming a councillor.

County councillors are elected by the people of West Sussex to represent their interests and ensure they have a voice when decisions are being made around vital services such as social care, roads and transport, education, waste and recycling, and libraries.

The county council is holding an information session for people to find out more about what it is like to be a county councillor.

It will take place on Wednesday 13 November 2024 at County Hall, Chichester, from 6pm to 7.30pm, or you can join online.

To request a place or a link to join online please email democratic.services@westsussex.gov.uk
