Last chance to book a stand at Horsham District Jobs & Skills Fair

There are just a few days left for local employers to book a stand at our Horsham District Jobs & Skills Fair 2025.

This year's fair takes place on Saturday 27 September 2025, 10am - 2pm at Horsham's Drill Hall.

Through exhibiting at the fair, companies of all sizes across a variety of business sectors will have the opportunity to:

- Attract new talent to support their recruitment needs, meeting hundreds of local jobseekers
- Access some excellent publicity and exposure for their business, in the lead up to and during the event
- Network with other local businesses and training providers.

Registrations of interest must be submitted by Friday 1 August.

Offer volunteer work placements to young people with SEND

Meet Henry and Andy, two students shining in their supported internship at The Pavilions in the Park. Thanks to St Piers College and local partners, they're gaining valuable work skills in sport and customer service while growing their confidence every day.

Places Leisure says: "It is an absolute pleasure working with Henry and Andy; both of them are very eager to get stuck in and help out wherever they can, and it has been lovely watching their confidence grow."

Thanks to their dedication, Places Leisure is expanding placements to welcome more students this September!

Want to make a difference and support our community? We're on the lookout for local employers ready to offer volunteer work placements to young people with SEND. To get involved email our Sports Development team or call 07764 146339.

Have your say on the future of local government in West Sussex

Businesses, residents and community groups across the county are being invited to share their views about the future of their councils as part of an important survey.

The survey asks respondents about where they live or work, the council services they use, as well as their thoughts about how their council could be structured in the future.

The survey will close at 11.59pm on Wednesday 13 August.

Learn how to run your business without barriers

The Federation of Small Business (FSB)'s "Business Without Barriers" hub features inspiring interviews with successful disabled entrepreneurs and personal accounts from employers who are helping to break down barriers to employment.

Available in physical and digital formats from a variety of organisations including The Bladder and Bowel Community, the card explains that the holder has a medical condition requiring immediate access to a toilet.

Your business can help by training staff to recognise these cards and allowing quick restroom access.
