Council launches judicial review against Secretary of State's planning decision

Horsham District Council has formally initiated a judicial review challenge against the Secretary of State's recent decision to grant outline planning permission for 800 homes at the Horsham Golf and Fitness site, Worthing Road, Horsham.

The Council originally refused the planning application on multiple grounds, including concerns over its unsustainable location and active travel options. Following a detailed legal review, and working in collaboration with Active Travel England, the Council is now contesting the decision on the basis that the government-appointed Planning Inspector made significant legal errors.
